

AREA STUDIES

Streaming Video Collection

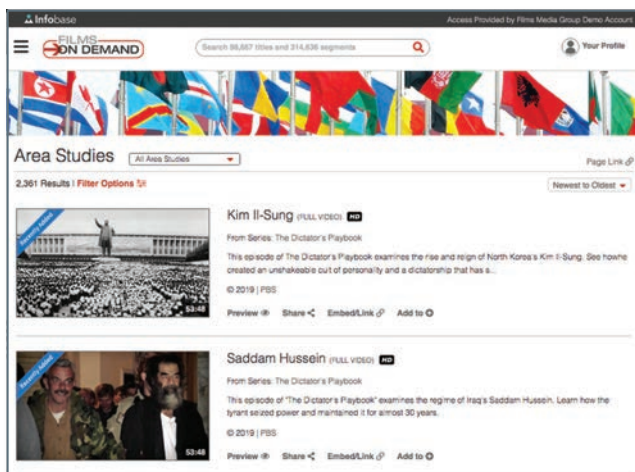

Includes:

- African Studies
- Asia & the Pacific
- Latin American Studies

33,510+ video clips, 2,710+ full-length videos—and growing!

In an increasingly flat world, an understanding of the histories, politics, cultures, and economies of different countries and regions of the globe is becoming essential to more professions than ever before. This large collection contains critically acclaimed documentaries and feature programming on some of the world's fastest-growing countries, such as China, India, Russia, and Brazil, as well as major regions including Africa, the Middle East, Latin America, and more.

- Unlimited access from your computer/laptop, tablet, or phone—on campus or off
- Create and share playlists—use premade clips, full videos, or custom segments to engage students
- Add a personalized video introduction to any playlist you create
- Upload the proprietary digital video content you already own and use (like lectures, seminars, etc.) to the platform
- Captions, interactive transcripts, citations, Google Translate, and more
- New videos added at no additional cost
- Videos can be easily added to LibGuides, distance education courses, social media platforms, and LMSs such as D2L, Canvas, Moodle, and others
- Public performance rights and no copyright infringement
- Keyword tags for all content, linking to related material

Use filters to find the perfect titles and clips for lectures and assignments.

AREA STUDIES STREAMING VIDEO COLLECTION

All titles are segmented into short, pedagogical clips, ideal for intermittent use during classroom lectures. For classwork viewing, students can choose to watch an entire film without interruption. Titles within the collection are sorted across browsable subject categories, enabling refined searches for available titles in specific topic areas.

Collection Highlights:

EXCLUSIVE

Numerous timely documentaries on migration and refugee issues including Europe's Border Crisis: The Long Road; Children of the Great Migration; Greece: Odyssey; A Requiem for Syrian Refugees; and others.

EXCLUSIVE

Fighting the Tide: Developing Nations and Globalization
A 22-part series that documents how the consumption and spending habits of Western civilization affect people thousands of miles away, with each episode focusing on a different country.

EXCLUSIVE

A South American Journey, with Jonathan Dimbleby and An African Journey, with Jonathan Dimbleby
Two highly acclaimed BBC series, totaling six hours, featuring distinguished broadcaster and cultural ambassador Jonathan Dimbleby as he tours two of the world's least understood continents.

EXCLUSIVE

China on China

An eight-part series offering a wide range of perspectives from inside China as it looks at culture, politics, and daily life.

Stephen Fry in Central America

A remarkable four-part road trip through this dangerous yet breathtakingly beautiful region.

The Story of India, with Michael Wood

A six-part series in which historian Michael Wood studies the intense drama of India's past, the originality and continuing relevance of its ideas, and the richness and diversity of its peoples, cultures, and landscapes.

Multiple titles from National Geographic documenting how societies in different parts of the world approach common issues such as death, the role of the family, the role of women, body image, justice, and more.

EXCLUSIVE

Dishonorable Killings: Punishing the Innocent

Documentary on the practice of "honor killing" that still prevails in many Middle Eastern and Central Asian countries.

EXCLUSIVE

Lost Children: Uganda's Youngest Soldiers

A powerful, award-winning documentary that examines the tragic stories of two boys and two girls between the ages of eight and 14 who escaped their forced participation in the murderous Lord's Resistance Army.

EXCLUSIVE

What Are We Doing Here? Why Western Aid Hasn't Helped Africa

A multiple-award-winning documentary that follows four young Americans as they experience firsthand the scope and intractability of Africa's suffering, while aid workers, government officials, and ordinary individuals explore why providing aid is no panacea.

EXCLUSIVE

Flowers of Rwanda: Making Peace with Genocide

Winner of multiple film festival awards, this documentary looks at Rwanda 12 years post-genocide and asks whether killers and survivors can coexist.

EXCLUSIVE

Approach of Dawn: Forging Peace in Guatemala

Award-winning documentary that profiles three Mayan women and their efforts on behalf of peace in the wake of the 36-year civil war that devastated Guatemalan families and culture.

EXCLUSIVE

China: Triumph and Turmoil

A three-part series in which Harvard University history professor Niall Ferguson contemplates the future of a country where a fifth of humanity lives under a Communist government with a capitalist economy.