

New Releases

 Films Media Group
An Infobase Learning Company

DVD • Spring 2014

Anthropology

Land of the Dogon: World Heritage in Peril

This extraordinary program immerses viewers in Dogon village life as farmers, tour guides, and elders discuss the challenges of modernization. Portions with English subtitles.

(52 minutes) © 2012

Recommended by

Anthropology Review Database.

$169.95 52778 • DVD

THE LAST HUNTER TANZANIA'S HADZABE PEOPLE

The Hadzabe are the first inhabitants of Tanzania, with a bloodline that is the second oldest in the world.

This three-part series documents their traditions along with the difficulties they now face.

Portions with English subtitles.

(47–51 minutes each) © 2012

Purchase the 3-part series today!

Series List Price: $509.85

53100 • DVD

Area Studies—Africa

Egypt: Behind the Revolution

Filmed during the spring of 2011 and featuring Egyptians from all walks of life, this program offers an inside look at the events that led to Hosni Mubarak's resignation and a new political era in Egypt.

(60 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 52324 • DVD

THE AFRICAN GAME THE CONSERVATION PARADOX

This thought-provoking six-part series presents a fresh perspective on loss of biodiversity in Africa, arguing that the work of international conservation groups to save endangered species is actually doing more harm than good. (26 minutes each) © 2002

Purchase the 6-part series today!

Series List Price: $599.70

53502 • DVD

Where Have All the Elephants Gone? Poaching in Tanzania and Kenya

This program charts the rapid decline of the African elephant as it investigates the illegal ivory trade that's doing them in.

(27 minutes) © 2013

$129.95 53500 • DVD

Asia & The Pacific

How Women Won the Vote

Australia was the first country in the world to grant full political rights to women. In this film, historian Dr. Clare Wright traces the fight for women's suffrage in Australia. Years ahead of Britain and the U.S., some Australian women were voting as early as 1838. © 2011

$169.95 55086 • DVD

China: From Cartier to Confucius

Confucian texts suppressed during the Cultural Revolution are resurfacing in Chinese academia. In this film, a professor and his students ask whether or not the ancient ideas can take root in modern consumerist China. Portions with English subtitles. (45 minutes) © 2012

$169.95 53075 • DVD

A Case Study in Immigration and Assimilation:

Once Upon a Time in Cabramatta

Focusing on challenges that could face any immigrant population, this three-part series chronicles the development of the Sydney suburb of Cabramatta from crime-ridden Vietnamese ghetto to thriving Australian community. Viewable/printable instructor's guide available online. Portions with English subtitles. (49–53 minutes each) © 2011

Purchase the 3-part series today!

Series List Price: $509.85

52697 • DVD

China on China

Offering a wide range of perspectives from inside China, this eight-part series looks at culture, politics, and daily life in the country. Portions with English subtitles. (29 minutes each) © 2012

Purchase the 8-part series today!

Series List Price: $1,359.60

53090 • DVD

 Closed Captioned ‡ Available only in the U.S.

DNA Dreams: China's Genetic Research

This program profiles scientists at China's BGI, an internationally-renowned genome sequencing center, and raises questions about the societal implications of their work. Portions with English subtitles. (53 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 55246 • DVD

Mongolia: The Big Dig

A recent slew of mining deals may help Mongolia's economy, but environmentalists worry that the development push has come too fast and too aggressively. (28 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 52826 • DVD

Cambodia: We Will Not Be Moved

Following the story of Phnom Penh's "BK13" anti-eviction protest, this program also examines wider dilemmas of land use facing 21st-century Cambodia. (28 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 52825 • DVD

The Defector: Escape from North Korea

This program follows along as filmmaker Ann Shin, North Korean refugee Sook-ja, and a human trafficker named Dragon undertake a dangerous journey to Thailand, where Sook-ja can apply for asylum. Portions with English subtitles. (71 minutes) © 2012

$169.95 53450 • DVD

A Journey to North Korea, 2012

North Korea's attempted rocket launch on April 13th, 2012, is a case study in state propaganda and geopolitical brinkmanship. Produced by Hong Kong-based Phoenix TV, this film documents the event. Portions with English subtitles. (54 minutes) © 2012

$169.95 53301 • DVD

Permission to Engage: The Anguish of Civilian Casualties

On July 12, 2007, a U.S. airstrike killed or wounded at least 17 Baghdad civilians. This film examines the tragic incident with interviews in the U.S. and Iraq. Contains mature subject matter and scenes of combat violence. Portions with English subtitles. (51 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 53069 • DVD

The Bhutto Saga: Politics in the Blood

This program provides a biography of Pakistan's Bhutto family, focusing on daughter Benazir's rise to power and the challenges of the three terms she spent as prime minister until her assassination in 2007. Portions with English subtitles. (56 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 53606 • DVD

Rotorua: A Case Study in Sustainable Tourism

Pointing out spectacular landscapes, remarkable geothermal features, and a strong connection to Maori culture, this program offers the New Zealand city of Rotorua as a case study in tourism. Viewable/printable educational materials are available online. (24 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 52783 • DVD

The Treaty of Waitangi: An Introduction

This program examines events leading to the signing of New Zealand's Treaty of Waitangi in 1840 and consequences for the Maori peoples of the signing. An excellent resource for students of indigenous rights. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (23 minutes) © 2013  ‡

Recommended by
Anthropology Review Database.

$129.95 53206 • DVD

I Am the River: Maori Heritage on the Auction Block

This program documents the discovery of a trove of 19th-century photographs of Maori people, and the resultant battle between the Auckland auction house that wanted to sell the images and the Maoris who fought to halt their sale. (51 minutes) © 2010

$169.95 53462 • DVD

The Christchurch Earthquake: A Case Study

This program presents an in-depth case study of 2011's devastating earthquake in Christchurch, New Zealand, focusing on both the science behind it and its social impact. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (30 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 53204 • DVD

 Closed Captioned ‡ Available only in the U.S.

Middle EastNasseredin Shah and His 84 Wives

Based on Nasseredin Shah's 19th-century daguerreotypes, this program provides biographical details of his favorite wives and reveals the influence that they, along with the Queen Mother, had at court. (58 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 55115 • DVD

Israel's Prisoner X: A Special Edition of Foreign Correspondent

This program explores the case of Prisoner X, an Australian man who may have been a Mossad agent and who killed himself in an Israeli prison in 2013. (28 minutes) © 2013

$129.95 53501 • DVD

Latin AmericaLas Abuelas de Plaza de Mayo and the Search for Identity: Children of Argentina's "Disappeared"

Through interviews with members of Las Abuelas and with recovered adult grandchildren, this program tells the story of grandmothers determined to find relatives kidnapped by the government during Argentina's Dirty War. (55 minutes) © 2012

$169.95 53461 • DVD

Art & Architecture

ART21 PRESENTS

william kentridge

Six Drawing Lessons—The Norton Lectures

Six Drawing Lessons comprises the six lectures Johannesburg-born artist William Kentridge delivered in the spring of 2012 as a Charles Eliot Norton Lecturer at Harvard University. © 2012

Purchase the 6-part set today!
Series List Price: $499.95
56285 • DVD

Rockwell Kent: A Biography

Thirteen years in the making, this film examines the origins and development Rockwell Kent's art while tracing his journey through almost nine decades of life. Scholars, critics, and intimates of Kent provide commentary. A Documentary by Frederick Lewis.

(172 minutes) © 2006

"The best film on an American artist that I have ever seen... quite at the level of Ken Burns' best work."—Henry Adams, author and art historian

$169.95 53549 • DVD

PHOTO

This 12-part series from Arte France traces the adventure of photography from its beginnings up through the 21st century, revealing the hidden stories and trade secrets concealed in a series of photographs. (26 minutes each)

© 2013

Purchase the 12-part series today!
Series List Price: $1,799.40

53586 • DVD

Breaking the Wall Between Earth and Sky: How Art Challenges Gravity and Light in Our Habitat

Based in Germany, Argentinian artist and architect Tomás Saraceno develops utopian spaces inspired by evocative elements. Saraceno here demonstrates how his collaborations with scientists at NASA, among other engineers, chemists, botanists, astrophysicists, and biologists, offer new social alternatives to the political, social, cultural, and military restrictions accepted in today's world.

(15 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53581 • DVD

Futurism: The Art/Life Revolution

Combining vivid dramatizations, voice-overs, and archival material, this film tells the story of

Futurism and its problematic cultural legacy. Interviews with numerous critics and scholars are also included. (53 minutes)

© 2010

$169.95 53318 • DVD

Ugly Beauty: Appreciating 21st-Century Art

Has beauty vanished from contemporary art? No, argues British critic Waldemar Januszczak in this program. Damien Hirst, Jeff Koons, Tatsuo Miyajima, and other art-world figures are interviewed. (60 minutes) © 2009

$169.95 52230 • DVD

What Is Beauty? An Art Critic's Journey

Using examples from prehistoric art as well as the works of Piero della Francesca, Michelangelo, Magritte, Gauguin, Rauschenberg, and others, renowned art critic Matthew Collings presents a thoughtful exploration of pictorial beauty. (59 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 52231 • DVD

Tales from the Museum of Islamic Art

The Museum of Islamic Art in Doha, Qatar, is filled with greatest treasures of the Islamic world. This film tells the stories behind some of the museum's most remarkable items, including Jahan's Jade Pendant and Shah to Al-Sufi's Book of Fixed Stars. (54 minutes) © 2012

$169.95 55112 • DVD

Learning from the Light

World-renowned architect I. M. Pei was already in his 90s when he designed the Museum of Islamic Art in Doha, Qatar. This documentary, from award-winning filmmaker Bo Landin, visits Alhambra and Cordoba in Spain, and Cairo to understand the essence of Pei's architecture and its historical place in the Islamic world. (57 minutes) © 2009

$169.95 55085 • DVD

Breaking the Wall of Convention: How Architecture Can Provoke New Thought

Acclaimed for provocative works, Daniel Libeskind envisions architecture as a reflection and active part of local culture. Here he discusses his current projects, including his online teaching approach at Leuphana University Lüneburg, aimed at building the ideal 21st-century city. (16 minutes)

© 2012

$129.95 53577 • DVD

Leonardo da Vinci: The Restoration of the Century

This program goes behind the scenes of the Louvre's restoration of da Vinci's Virgin and Child with Saint Anne, even as experts debate its risks. Portions with English subtitles. (55 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 53611 • DVD

 Closed Captioned † Available only in the U.S.

HIDDEN LIVES OF WORKS OF ART

In each episode of this five-part series, paintings which are normally kept by the Louvre in tightly controlled surroundings are removed from the walls and their centuries-old frames, to be examined by scholars. (52 minutes each) © 2012

Purchase the 5-part series today!
Series List Price: $849.75

53599 • DVD

Biology

Cell Biology: Structure, Function and Processes

In this four-part series, rich animation brings the intricate inner workings of cells to life and guides viewers through the essentials of cell biology in short, discrete segments. (20–22 minutes each) © 2014

Purchase the 4-part series today!
Series List Price: $519.80

55128 • DVD

Behind the Label: India's Genetically Modified Cotton

In this program, experts investigating the use of Monsanto's genetically modified BT cotton in India convey their concerns about non-renewable seeds, loss of biodiversity, and a rise in farmers' suicides since the arrival of Monsanto. Portions with English subtitles. (53 minutes) © 2011

Recommended by

Anthropology Review Database.

$169.95 53319 • DVD

Breaking the Wall of Biocomplexity: How a Reactive-Systems Approach May Lead to Full Dynamic Models of Multicellular Organisms

With interactive computer simulations now replacing experiments on living beings, award-winning computer scientist David Harel has proposed modeling a full multicellular organism as a reactive system. Dynamic, interactive, and zoomable, it would allow changes and probes on the cellular and molecular levels. (16 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53574 • DVD

Breaking the Wall of Bad Taste: How Psychophysics and Neurophysiology Can Improve Our Food Choices

Per Møller—University of Copenhagen professor and Flavor Magazine editor in chief—offers unique insight into what our relationship with food is based on, how memory of odors and flavors is connected to critical periods of our growth, and what triggers choice and consumption. (16 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53579 • DVD

Breaking the Wall of Super Materials: How Biology Inspires Nanomechanics

Award-winning engineer and physicist Nicola Pugno, of Università di Trento, Italy, has generated news-worthy research on a hierarchical nanotube or graphene adhesive system that's strong enough to suspend one's full body weight from any ceiling. Pugno here presents the results from his research on bio-inspired nanomaterials. (15 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53580 • DVD

Business & Economics

Accounting Fundamentals

This four-part series provides an indispensable overview of the fundamentals of accounting. A Films for the Humanities & Sciences/MotionMasters Coproduction. (30 minutes each) © 2014

Purchase the 4-part series today!
Series List Price: $399.80

53615 • DVD

Chilean Mine Rescue: The Unstoppable Team— A Case Study in Group Decision Making

Using the dramatic 2010 Chilean mine rescue as a case study, this video outlines and explains several core principles of effective management, communication, and team-building. (20 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53322 • DVD

The Cuban Missile Crisis: A Case Study in Decision Making and Its Consequences

Management experts often cite the actions of President Kennedy and ExComm during the 1962 Cuban missile crisis as examples of good group decision making. This video presents a case study drawn from the historic event. (26 minutes) © 1999

$129.95 53321 • DVD

Digital Media for Business Marketing

Digital technology has transformed marketing. This timely two-part series will show viewers how to put online and mobile media to work. A Films for the Humanities & Sciences/MotionMasters Coproduction. (25–30 minutes each) © 2014

Purchase the 2-part series today!

Series List Price: $199.90

53458 • DVD

Programming the Nation? The History of Subliminal Messaging in America

With eye-opening footage, expert interviews, and humorous anecdotes, this provocative program explores the alleged use of subliminal messages in advertising, music, film, politics, and the military. (103 minutes) © 2011

“Profoundly disturbing, as ambitious as it is provocative.”—Los Angeles Times

$169.95 52320 • DVD

External Factors Affecting Business: Natural Disasters

This program explores the human cost as well as key logistical aspects for businesses affected by natural disasters. Covers damage assessment, emergency preparedness plans, and more. Produced in Australia. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (24 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 53756 • DVD

Factors Affecting Global Tourism

Encompassing geographical, environmental, political, and cultural factors affecting tourism, this program examines what many in the industry call the “global forces taxonomy.” Viewable/printable educational materials are available online. (20 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 52781 • DVD

Ecotourism: A Case Study

This program uses Australia's Phillip Island Nature Park as a case study to explore and illustrate the principles of ecotourism. Viewable/printable educational resources are available online. (29 minutes) © 2002  ‡

$129.95 55127 • DVD

 Closed Captioned ‡ Available only in the U.S.

Adrenaline Nation: New Zealand's Adventure Tourism

This program examines New Zealand's adventure tourism industry and exposes significant flaws in the country's safety regulations. With A. J. Hackett, founder of the first commercial bungee-jumping enterprise. (28 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53284 • DVD

Operations Processes: Inputs, Transformations, Outputs

Using four different businesses in New Zealand and Australia, this program takes a detailed look at business operations processes. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (23 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 53757 • DVD

Underhand Tactics: Investigating Corporate Culture

From manufacturing to marketing to high finance, this eight-part series shows how corporate practices impact families, communities, and the environment—locally and across the globe. (56 minutes each) © 2012

Purchase the 8-part series today!
Series List Price: $1,359.60

52418 • DVD

Financial Innovation: A Risky Business?

This vibrant discussion of challenges facing the financial industry features economist Robert Solow, former Congressman Barney Frank (D-MA), Too Big to Fail author Andrew Ross Sorkin, and other panelists. (64 minutes + bonus material) © 2012

$169.95 53766 • DVD

Not Working: The Pulse of the Great Recession

In dialogue with Studs Terkel's 1974 book Working, this film travels from coast to coast to gather stories of people who have lost their jobs due to the recent economic downturn. This is the face of the Great Recession. Some language may be offensive. (98 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 55494 • DVD

The Tax-Free Tour: Corporate Tax Havens

This program goes to London, Long Island, Amsterdam, and Kenya to investigate corporate tax havens, focusing on the legality and ethics of financial doings at Apple Inc., Starbucks, and other companies. Portions with English subtitles. (53 minutes)

© 2013

$169.95 55248 • DVD

Inside the Banker's Brain

Hosted by former financial analyst Geraint Anderson, this program explores the biology of risk-taking and puts forth the idea that out-of-control hormones may have led to the financial crash of 2008. Portions with English subtitles. (50 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 55250 • DVD

The Africa-China Connection: A Thriving Business Partnership

This program goes to Nigeria Town in Guangzhou to investigate the strong economic relationship between Africa and China and what it may mean for the West. Portions with English subtitles.

(50 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 55247 • DVD

97 PERCENT OWNED HOW UNLIMITED CREDIT CREATION BROUGHT ABOUT THE GREAT RECESSION

Referring to the 97 percent of the world's money supply that is represented by credit, 97% Owned exposes the fundamentally flawed debt-based monetary system that is at the core of the Great Recession. (52 minutes each) © 2012

Purchase the 2-part series today!
Series List Price: $339.90
55025 • DVD

Made in Germany: Europe's Economic Superstar

This documentary examines Germany's socioeconomic power—how it developed at the dawn of the 21st century and how it will continue to shape the EU and the world. Portions with English subtitles.

(49 minutes) © 2012

$169.95 53074 • DVD

Goldman Sachs and the Decline of Greece

Traveling to New York, London, and Athens, this film explores dealings between investment bank Goldman Sachs and the Greek government and assesses the consequences in present-day Greece. Portions with English subtitles. (50 minutes) © 2012

$169.95 53073 • DVD

Greece's New Odyssey

This program introduces people in the vanguard of Greece's entrepreneurial trend, who through barter, alternative currency, and a pioneering spirit, are thriving during their government's debt crisis. (28 minutes)

© 2012

$129.95 53285 • DVD

Moyers & Company: The Top Secret Trade Deal You Need to Know About

This edition of Moyers & Company discusses a new trade deal being negotiated in secret that's even larger than NAFTA: the Trans-Pacific Partnership. Broadcast date:

November 1, 2013. (45 minutes) © 2013

$99.95 56127 • DVD

Breaking the Wall of Economic Uncertainty: How Online Data Can Help Us Understand the Economy

Central banks used to set interest rates based on economic information delayed by several weeks. Google's chief economist Hal Varian here reveals how data is now available one to three days after users perform searches—a time lapse that could make the difference between a slowdown and a recession. (12 minutes) © 2012

$99.95 53585 • DVD

Moyers & Company: Surviving the New American Economy

This edition of Moyers & Company reports on the Stanleys and the Neumanns, two Milwaukee families whose breadwinners lost well-paying factory jobs two decades ago and are still struggling to get by. Broadcast date: July 5, 2013. (57 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 55028 • DVD

A Future of Abundance: Is the World Better Than We Think?

This program visits with Peter Diamandis (Abundance: The Future is Better Than You Think), who explains his belief that technology is advancing in ways that will easily provide all of Earth's inhabitants with their basic needs while addressing today's environmental concerns. (50 minutes)

© 2013

$169.95 55249 • DVD

Careers & Job Search

LinkedIn for Networking and Job Search: Basic and Advanced Techniques

This program explains how to create an effective LinkedIn profile and use the site to connect with potential employers. Recommended as an important update to any career-search curriculum that wants to show why resumes alone are no longer enough. A Cambridge Educational/MotionMasters Coproduction. (26 minutes) © 2014

$99.95 53099 • DVD

The World of Work

In this program people discuss their jobs, and adapting to a changing employment environment. Viewers are encouraged to assess their interests when searching for their ideal job. Produced in Australia. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (15 minutes) © 2013

$129.95 53208 • DVD

Finding Your Purpose

This video will help viewers discover and live a life of purpose by answering the question "What should I do with my time that will benefit both me and society?" (40 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 53236 • DVD

207 Interview Techniques

Appropriate for either first-time job applicants or seasoned interviewees, this program gives tips gleaned from thousands of employers who were asked two questions about candidates: "What impressed you most?" and "What mistakes did they make?" (67 minutes) © 2008

$169.95 53228 • DVD

Closed Captioned † Available only in the U.S.

135 Interview Answers

In this instructive and often humorous program, top recruiter Stephen Convoy (Microsoft, Nokia, Disney, Coca-Cola) instructs job-seekers on what to say and what never to say in response to specific interview questions. (79 minutes) © 2009

$169.95 53229 • DVD

175 Resume Secrets

This video brings together six experts in resume-writing to reveal their most valuable secrets. Original title: 175 CV Secrets. Also known as Top CV Secrets. (58 minutes) © 2009

$169.95 53230 • DVD

Psychometric Testing and Employment

This program explains what psychometric testing is, the various psychometric tests job candidates might encounter, how to prepare for the tests, and more. Produced in Australia. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (22 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 53207 • DVD

CUSTOMER SERVICE ESSENTIALS

Helping individual employees improve their attitudes and behavior, this three-part series illustrates best practices for delivering effective customer service. Each episode features dramatizations that help to illustrate real-world lessons, while easy-to-read text summaries follow each segment, reinforcing concepts. Viewable/printable educational materials are available online. A Films for the Humanities & Sciences Production. (20 minutes each) © 2012

Purchase the 3-part series today!

Series List Price: $299.85

47818 • DVD

Surviving Being Laid Off

This video offers viewers tips and techniques to assist them in rebuilding their lives after a layoff. Original title: Surviving Redundancy. (48 minutes) © 2010

$169.95 53232 • DVD

Not Working:
The Pulse of the Great Recession

In dialogue with Studs Terkel's 1974 book Working, this film travels from coast to coast to gather stories of people who have lost their jobs due to the recent economic downturn. This is the face of the Great Recession. Some language may be offensive. (98 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 55494 • DVD

Communication

Fry's Planet Word

This five-part series explores human language, from linguistics research to the glories of world literature, taking viewers through the thousands of years since man first mastered speech to the cyber world of today. With Stephen Fry. A BBC Production. (57–60 minutes each) © 2011

Purchase the 5-part series today!

Series List Price: $849.75

52467 • DVD

Brilliant Public Speaking

This video features top speakers and public speaking coaches who share their superb advice on how to speak confidently in any situation. The definitive step-by-step guide to an inspired presentation! (65 minutes) © 2010

$169.95 53231 • DVD

Boost Your Confidence

Boost Your Confidence will show viewers how to move from their (dis)comfort zone to the place they need to be in order to get more from their lives. Topics range from the negatives—negative friends, negative self-talk, victim mentality, setbacks, and feeling the fear—to the positives: making yourself feel wonderful, attracting opportunities, achieving what you want, and much, much more! (64 minutes) © 2010

$169.95 53233 • DVD

Graduate Interview Skills

This video brings together recruiters and employers to give viewers the inside track on what they're looking for at an interview...and a glimpse of some of the many mistakes they've witnessed. Also known as Graduate Interviews. (45 minutes) © 2010

$169.95 53234 • DVD

Executive Interview Skills

This video will help viewers navigate the executive interview process with tips covering networking, online presence, due diligence, selling oneself, building rapport, closing with style, and following up. Also known as Executive Interviews. (70 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 53235 • DVD

The Real Dirt on Gossip

This program explores the science, the history, and the evolutionary dynamic of gossip. (48 minutes) © 2012  ‡

$169.95 53326 • DVD

Computers & Technology

Developing a Website

Taking viewers into an exciting, creative, fast-growing industry, this video looks at key considerations in website development, such as purpose, design, construction, and testing. Viewable/printable educational resources are available online. (20 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 53451 • DVD

ICT in Organizations

In this program, experts discuss the ICT environment, the ICT

needs that many organizations face, the importance of monitoring and evaluating ICT systems, and the future of ICT. Viewable/printable educational resources are available online. (21 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 53452 • DVD

IT Networks

This program discusses wireless LANs, mobile devices, hardware and software, wired and wireless protocols, the strengths and limitations of wired and wireless systems, and network security. Viewable/printable educational resources are available online. (20 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 53453 • DVD

 Closed Captioned ‡ Available only in the U.S.

Breaking the Wall of Internet Censorship: How Peer-to-Peer Wireless Mesh Networks Are Replacing Centralized Connectivity

After three days of anti-regime protests in January 2011, organized primarily through social networks, the Egyptian government switched off 93 percent of the nation's Internet. In this Falling Walls lecture, computer scientist Aaron Kaplan, cofounder of the FunkFeuer initiative, discusses wireless mesh networks—an open-source technology that's realizing the dream of a free Internet. (15 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53576 • DVD

Electrification Comes to the Farm

This three part series presents the 1940 film classic Power and the Land in its entirety, along with two related USDA films and two companion programs that shed light on the original work. (56–57 minutes each) © 2010

Purchase the 3-part series today!
Series List Price: $509.85
53081 • DVD

Operations Processes: Inputs, Transformations, Outputs

Using four different businesses in New Zealand and Australia, this program takes a detailed look at business operations processes. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (23 minutes) © 2013

$129.95 53757 • DVD

Data Mining: Big Data's Increasing Challenge and Payoff

Covering scientific and business applications as well as ethical issues, this program explores the methods, processes, and key functions of data analysis. Viewable/printable educational materials are available online. A Films for the Humanities & Sciences Production. (25 minutes) © 2012

$99.95 47487 • DVD

Face Recognition

This program explores facial perception and facial blindness. With commentary from renown prosopagnosia researcher Dr. Vicki Bruce. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (24 minutes) © 2013

$129.95 53210 • DVD

Criminal Justice and Law

Solitary Confinement: No Way Out of the Monster Factory

Is solitary confinement inhumane—and even a form of torture? In this ABC News program, reporter Dan Harris spends 48 hours “in the hole” at Denver County Jail in an effort to find out. Broadcast date: September 20, 2012. (16 minutes) © 2012

$99.95 52810 • DVD

Of Dolls and Murder

Of Dolls and Murder explores a haunting collection of dollhouse crime scenes and our universal fascination with murder. The documentary film explores the dioramas, the woman who created them, and their relationship to modern day forensics. From the iconic CSI television show to the Body Farm and criminally minded college students and a crime fighting granny, legendary filmmaker and true crime aficionado, John Waters narrates the tiny world of big time murder. (82 minutes) © 2012

$69.95 51208 • DVD

Breaking the Taboo: Have We Lost the War on Drugs?

Narrated by Morgan Freeman, this documentary examines the UN-sanctioned war on drugs, charting its origins and its devastating impact on countries around the world. With Bill Clinton, Jimmy Carter, and others. (52 minutes) © 2012

$169.95 53283 • DVD

It's More Expensive to Do Nothing: Prison, Recidivism, and Remediation

Featuring experts in law, policy-making, criminal justice, addiction treatment, and child development, this film highlights the benefits of remediation and literacy programs that can help ex-offenders turn their lives around. (49 minutes) © 2010

$169.95 53196 • DVD

Earth Science

The Farallon Islands: Past, Present, and Future

Exploring the rich natural history and vulnerable ecosystem of the Farallon islands, this program looks at their geography, geology, marine environment, and wildlife. (38 minutes) © 2010

$169.95 53190 • DVD

Closed Captioned † Available only in the U.S.

Islands and Life

This six-part series explores the lives of islanders on Fiji, Cuba, Cyprus, Galapagos, Zanzibar, and Iceland. Remote, beautiful, mysterious, and unique: islands are worlds of their own. (52–53 minutes each) © 2011

Purchase the 6-part series today!
Series List Price: $1,019.70
55078 • DVD

DESERTS AND LIFE

This six-part series explores the realities of the desert and the disparate life that exists in the emptiness. See white salt basins, emerald-colored lagoons, lava flows, and red, blue and purple mountains. Visit the deserts of the world and learn the truth © 2011

Purchase the 6-part series today!
Series List Price: $1,019.70
55095 • DVD

Floods: Natural Hazards

This program examines the 2005 flood in Carlisle, U.K. and the 2011 flood in Queensland. Flood management is explored in detail, including information on hard and soft engineering techniques. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (22 minutes) © 2013

$129.95 53753 • DVD

Last Journey for the Leatherback?

Introducing viewers to the world of the leatherback turtle, this film outlines the threat that industrial fishing poses to the species' survival. (27 minutes) © 2004

$129.95 53194 • DVD

Realm of the Ancient Redwoods

Examining life on the grand scale of the redwood, this program illustrates the natural history of these woodland behemoths and follows researchers looking for, and finding, the loftiest tree on Earth. (51 minutes)

© 2010

$169.95 53191 • DVD

A Fall from Freedom: Sea Mammals in Captivity

Exposing the sordid history of the captive whale and dolphin business, this film reports on dolphin killing, orca trapping and transport, and the miseducation of the public at marine parks and aquariums. (81 minutes)

© 2011

$169.95 53192 • DVD

Pity the Pilot Whale

This program contrasts the traditional whaling practices of Faroese islanders with the rescue work of New Zealand marine activists. Pilot whale communication, intelligence, and social structures are also examined.

(51 minutes) © 1994

$169.95 53193 • DVD

Reef Life of the Andaman: Marine Species of Thailand and Burma

This stunning documentary brings viewers on a virtual scuba diving tour of the Andaman Sea's variety of oceanic life. (116 minutes)

© 2012

$169.95 53282 • DVD

Breaking the Wall of the Dark Side of the Oceans: How Marine Sciences Discover Hidden Resources

The sea brings vast opportunities and risks: untapped resources; bioactive substances, precious for medication; ocean acidification threatening marine life; and natural hazards like tsunamis. Peter Herzig, who pioneered research on gold-rich seafloor mineral deposits and their application to industries, here introduces the research vessel expeditions he leads as chief scientist. (14 minutes)

© 2012

$129.95 53575 • DVD

Education

Teaching Literacy

Studies show that students who enjoy reading and writing have expanded comprehension skills and better overall communication skills. This video demonstrates that with a little creativity, learning to read and write can be fun. Whole class and small group activities include shared and guided reading, learning centers, rephrasing, reinforcement, and summarizing. Students will be encouraged to reflect, discuss, and support each other as they develop these new skills. (22 minutes)

© 2009

$129.95 53714 • DVD

Teaching Numeracy

Teaching and learning numeracy skills involves a large range of elements. Basic math skills are required in almost every aspect of life and creating fun activities can challenge children to explore and allow them to enjoy the process. This video demonstrates the use of whole class and small group activities open ended activities and questions, encouraging trial and error to find solutions. Math can be fun when children are challenged to explore. (16 minutes) © 2009

$129.95 53715 • DVD

Effective Schools

Educating children is easier when students are happy and motivated to learn. This video will show how to implement practical strategies like parental and student involvement in strategic planning, facilitating parental focus groups, developing student leadership, mediation programs, and developing strategies to eliminate bullying in order to bring everyone into the process. Educators will be able to focus on continuous improvements and teach with purpose. (15 minutes)

© 2009

$129.95 53717 • DVD

Peer Mediation

Preventing bullying in school is a top priority for all educators, since the effects felt by the bullied child can last for a lifetime. This video shows how improved communication, leadership, and problem solving can lead to a solution. Empower students to practice peer mediation with this five-step mediation strategy. A great tool for use in teacher training and with students ages 8-13. (15 minutes) © 2009

$129.95 53716 • DVD

Education—Physical Education

Badminton

This program explains how to play badminton, including the use of the carbon fiber racket and other equipment, the clothing worn by players, the field of play, and basic terminology. (26 minutes)

© 2012

$129.95 53263 • DVD

Basketball

This program describes how basketball is played, including positions in the lineup, the equipment and clothing needed, and the basics of both international and NBA rules.

(26 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53264 • DVD

Field Hockey

The basics of field hockey are detailed in this program, with segments on the equipment used, protective gear worn, the playing field, the role of various positions, and penalties. (26 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53266 • DVD

Handball

The basics of handball are described in this program, with specific information about the field of play, uniforms, necessary gear, interaction among the players, scoring strategies, and penalties according to international regulations. (26 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53270 • DVD

Ice Hockey

In this program viewers learn about penalties, protective gear, goalkeeping, and other aspects of how ice hockey is played. Details of skating, stick control, passing, and shots are demonstrated, along with explanations of positions and roles of the players.

(26 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53271 • DVD

 Closed Captioned † Available only in the U.S.

Rugby

This program explains how rugby is played, with segments on the field, protective gear, and the role of the various players. The video also touches on rugby 15 (or rugby union), rugby 13 (or rugby league), and rugby sevens. (26 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53272 • DVD

Soccer

This program covers in detail how soccer is played, including FIFA rules, the functions of various positions, and techniques for receiving, passing, and shooting the ball. Also touches on football 11, football 7, and indoor football. (26 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53265 • DVD

Swimming

This program lets viewers know how to perform the freestyle stroke, breaststroke, butterfly, and backstroke, along with different types of starts and turns. Other facets of competitive swimming and the physical benefits of swimming are also covered. (26 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53267 • DVD

Taekwondo

This program explains taekwondo, focusing on its three basic disciplines of sparring, poomsae (patterns), and breaking. The video shows attack and counterattack movements; foot, arm, and leg techniques; acrobatics; and more. (26 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53268 • DVD

Tennis

An overview of the game of tennis is provided in this program, with information on techniques, terminology, types of racquets and tennis shoes, categories, and variations of the field of play according to International Tennis Federation rules. (26 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53269 • DVD

English & Language ArtsHenry V: Live from Shakespeare's Globe

This production of Henry V was filmed at Shakespeare's Globe and features Jamie Parker in a reprise of his role as King Henry V. (167 minutes) © 2012

"Bold and enthralling..."—The Times (London)

$169.95 53273 • DVD

The Taming of the Shrew: Live from Shakespeare's Globe

Samantha Spiro (Katherina) and Simon Paisley Day (Petruchio) were hailed by The Daily Mail as "a perfect match" in this production of The Taming of the Shrew, filmed at Shakespeare's Globe. (167 minutes) © 2012

"A cheeky, clever, continuous delight."

—The Times (London)

$169.95 53274 • DVD

Twelfth Night: Live from Shakespeare's Globe

This all-male production of Twelfth Night, filmed at Shakespeare's Globe, was deemed

"sensational" by the London Telegraph and "a knock out audience success" by the Observer. With Mark Rylance and Stephen Fry. (175 minutes) © 2012

"Sensational. I doubt I will ever see a better Twelfth Night."

—The Sunday Telegraph (London)

$169.95 53275 • DVD

A Midsummer Night's Dream (in Original Pronunciation)

This production of A Midsummer Night's Dream captures a single performance in Early Modern English pronunciation from the play's November 2010 run at The University of Kansas. (77 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 55020 • DVD

 Closed Captioned † Available only in the U.S.

The Jew of Malta

This pitch-black comedy from the satirical pen of Christopher Marlowe—the only film adaptation of Marlowe's brilliant drama—depicts hypocritical Christians, bloodthirsty Muslims, and one murderous Jew at his stereotypical worst. (106 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 53280 • DVD

Moyers & Company: Wendell Berry, Poet and Prophet

This edition of Moyers & Company spotlights Wendell Berry—a passionate environmental advocate, a man of the land, and one of America's most influential writers. Broadcast date: October 4, 2013, and November 29, 2013. (57 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 55672 • DVD

Moyers & Company: Issues of Art and Heart

In this edition of Moyers & Company, Bill is joined by poet and former publishing executive James Autry to talk about issues of art and heart. Broadcast date: December 14, 2012. (33 minutes) © 2012

$99.95 52774 • DVD

Doctor Faustus

Staged at London's award-winning Greenwich Theatre, "The Tragical History of the Life and Death of Doctor Faustus" was first published in 1604 by Christopher Marlowe. Having decided he has accumulated all he can of conventional knowledge, Doctor Faustus turns to magic in a quest for greater truths and gradually realizes his terrible mistake. (316 minutes) © 2010

$69.95 51480 • DVD

Moyers & Company: The Power Behind Poetry

In this edition of Moyers & Company, Martín Espada talks to Bill about the power of poetry and reads from some of his works. Broadcast date: February 15, 2013. (21 minutes) © 2013

$69.95 53109 • DVD

The Last Poets: Made in Amerikkka

This program combines dynamic stage performances by the Last Poets with interviews and on-screen lyrics. Contains potentially offensive language and mature subject matter associated with artistic expression. Viewer discretion advised. (52 minutes) © 2012  ‡

$169.95 53225 • DVD

The Duchess Of Malfi

This classic play is aimed at the student, teacher, lecturer and theater lover alike, uses professional actors and directors at London's award-winning Greenwich Theatre in this production of "The Duchess of Malfi". The play is considered to be a masterpiece from Jacobean playwright, John Webster around 1613. This macabre tragedy, set in Italy in the early fifteenth century, it starts out as a love story, with the Duchess marrying beneath her class. However, her two brothers have other ideas. (393 minutes) © 2010  ‡

$69.95 51482 • DVD

Environmental ScienceNational Parks:
The Environmental Challenge

This program examines challenges faced by three national parks—Yellowstone, England's Lake District, and Australia's Kakadu—and delves into the conflicts between recreational, economic, and ecological needs. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (23 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 53557 • DVD

Regreening the Desert:
One Man's Global Mission

For more than 15 years, from China's Loess Plateau to the Middle East, cameraman and ecologist John D. Liu has conducted a one-man mission: inspire the global community to reclaim deserts and restore biodiversity. Portions with English subtitles. (48 minutes) © 2012  ‡

$169.95 53071 • DVD

The Cleantech Future:
Industries for A Healthy Planet

With commentary from Cleantech Group cofounder Nick Parker, this film explores the fascinating potential of "clean technology" entrepreneurship and corporate practices. (49 minutes) © 2012  ‡

$169.95 53072 • DVD

Powerful: Energy for Everyone

In this documentary, green educator David Chernushenko explores where our energy comes from, who controls and profits from it, and what it would take to ensure a safe, sustainable energy future. (52 minutes) © 2010  ‡

$169.95 53325 • DVD

Family & Consumer SciencesFruits and Vegetables:
Selection and Preparation

This program shows viewers how to classify, select, and store fruits and vegetables, and also demonstrates three simple techniques for creating vegetable garnishes. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (15 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 54987 • DVD

Vegetables: Cooking Techniques

This program demonstrates cooking techniques that bring out flavor while preserving the nutrients of a variety of vegetables. Braising, roasting, steaming, grilling, stir-frying, and knife use are all covered. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (17 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 54988 • DVD

Meat: Selection and Preparation

This program explains how to prepare meat before cooking while also guiding viewers through the identification of different cuts, storage and safety tips, deboning, and knife selection. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (21 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 54989 • DVD

Meat: Cooking Techniques

This program demonstrates methods for roasting, frying, grilling, stewing, braising, and larding different kinds of meat, explains internal temperatures, flavorings, and more. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (17 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 54990 • DVD

Cheese Slices
(Series 6)

In this eight-part series, Master of Cheese Will Studd travels through Asia,

Europe, and the Middle East and looks at the fascinating stories behind the cheeses of these areas. From the traditional cheeses of Bhutan, Turkey, and India to the rare Alpine cheeses of northeastern Italy, and the almost extinct monastic cheeses of France, Will experiences the cultures and landscapes that contribute to the process of cheese-making. There's also a special look behind the artisanal cheese-making process in Israel and Catalonia, and the story behind the famous cultured butter of northern France. (26-42 minutes each) © 2012  ‡

Purchase the 8-part series today!

Series List Price: $799.60

55416 • DVD

Survival Tips for Teens:
Defensive Driving, with Mike Pehl

Focusing on the types of accidents most common to teens, in this program, Mike Pehl draws on his career as a car crash investigator to let viewers know the best way to react to adverse situations on the road. (16 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$99.95 53613 • DVD

Bad Weather, Safe Driving: Lifesaving Tips

This program offers tips for driving in rain, high winds, and fog, or when snow, ice, or flooding make for hazardous conditions. Also advises on how to prepare a vehicle for trips in bad weather, and more. A Meridian/MotionMasters Coproduction. (25 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$99.95 52184 • DVD

 Closed Captioned ‡ Available only in the U.S.

Geography

Bridge the Gap to Pine Ridge: A Visit with the Oglala Lakota People

In this program, actor and activist Chris Bashinelli visits the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota, home of the Oglala Sioux Tribe, also known as the Oglala Lakota. (56 minutes) © 2012 ‡
$129.95 52861 • DVD

Last Call Indian: Searching for Mohawk Identity

In this documentary, filmmaker Sonia Boileau returns to the Shingwauk Indian Residential School, where her grandfather was forced to give up his heritage, to contemplate Canada's Indian Act laws and her Mohawk cultural identity. Portions in French with English subtitles. (45 minutes) © 2010 ‡
$169.95 53323 • DVD

Breaking the Wall of Uninformed Cities: How Open Data Makes Urban Life Smarter

Computer scientist Ina Schieferdecker heads the Competence Center MOTION (Modeling and Testing for System and Service Solutions) at Berlin's Fraunhofer Institute for Open Communication Systems (FOKUS). FOKUS explores how information and communication technologies contribute to more comfortable, secure living. MOTION develops solutions inspired by topics concerning the future of ICT. (16 minutes) © 2012
$129.95 53582 • DVD

Guidance & Counseling

Vixens and Virgins and Other Mythological Creatures: How Teenage Girls See Themselves

Through conversations with experts and teen girls about sex, drugs, beauty ideals, and popularity, viewers glimpse the truth behind scandalous headlines and find a generation that is at once more accomplished, and yet more anxiety-ridden, than perhaps any other before. (46 minutes) © 2010 ‡
$169.95 53328 • DVD

Bullying and Suicide: Think About It

This video is structured around two scenarios in which a boy and a girl commit suicide after repeatedly being bullied. A Cambridge Educational/Endeavor Pictures Coproduction. (21 minutes) © 2014
$99.95 53277 • DVD

The Dark Side of Adderall and Other "Study Drugs"

This video follows Randy, a young man with no history of ADHD who began abusing Adderall in high school. A Cambridge Educational/Endeavor Pictures Coproduction. (15 minutes) © 2014
$99.95 53278 • DVD

There's No 3G in Heaven: Addressing Teen Suicide

This important program tells the story of an Australian community that, after a string of teen suicides, held a public meeting to allow the victims' loved ones to share their experiences and discuss ways to prevent such tragedies in the future. Some language may be offensive. (43 minutes) © 2012
$169.95 53077 • DVD

Bath Salts and Other Synthetic Drugs: Think About It

Filmed with a primary focus on "bath salts," this video exposes the dangers of readily available designer drugs. Contains scenes of drug abuse and overdose. A Cambridge Educational/Endeavor Pictures Coproduction. (18 minutes) © 2014
$99.95 53276 • DVD

Steubenville: After the Party's Over

Steubenville High School used to be known for touchdowns, not trials, until two football heroes were charged with and convicted of raping a 16-year-old girl during a post-game victory celebration. This ABC News report follows the party-hopping trail of digital evidence while underscoring a nationwide problem: crime being recorded instead of reported. Contains mature themes and explicit language and images. Broadcast date: March 22, 2013. (40 minutes) © 2013
$99.95 53553 • DVD

Sleep: An Overview

Presented by psychologist Steve Taylor and other experts, this program examines sleep, covering its stages, sleep disorders, sleep deprivation, theories about why we sleep, and more. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (25 minutes) © 2013 ‡
$129.95 53209 • DVD

Health

First Aid Emergencies: In the Home

Presenting clear information through various scenarios, this program describes the harmful accidents that can take place in a home and how the ensuing injuries should be treated. Produced in Australia. Viewable/printable educational resources are available online. (26 minutes) © 2013 ‡
$129.95 53555 • DVD

First Aid Emergencies: In the Community

Exploring scenarios in which first aid is needed, this program looks at injuries that often occur in public places, various factors involved, and how the injuries should be treated. Produced in Australia. Viewable/printable educational resources are available online. (25 minutes) © 2013 ‡
$129.95 53556 • DVD

The Smartest Team: Making High School Football Safer

Head injuries in football pose daunting challenges that sensational media coverage has many parents believing are insurmountable. In this program, youth sports health and safety expert Brooke de Lench enlists a team of doctors and coaches to show how football programs and athletes can reduce concussions by playing smarter, offering specific solutions and steps that can be taken to minimize risks. Viewable/printable educational resources are available online. (59 minutes) © 2013
$129.95 55330 • DVD

ITP: The Lifesaving Work of Blood Platelets

After providing background on the cellular components of blood, this program looks at immune thrombocytopenia, or ITP, a disorder in which a low platelet count causes excessive bleeding, and explains its various types and treatments. (24 minutes) © 2013
$129.95 53738 • DVD

Closed Captioned ‡ Available only in the U.S.

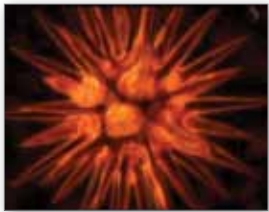

DISEASE AND...EASE

Using case studies, guest experts, and eye-catching graphics, this six-part series looks at the causes, symptoms, and treatment of six major diseases or disorders. Contains surgical scenes of a graphic nature. Portions with English subtitles. (25 minutes each) © 2012

Purchase the 6-part series today!
Series List Price: $899.70
53304 • DVD

Actinic Keratosis: The Link between Chronic Sun Damage and Skin Cancer

This program lets viewers know how people with actinic keratosis can lower their risk of invasive skin cancer. (25 minutes) © 2012
$129.95 53725 • DVD

Herpes: The Secret Is Out

The herpes simplex virus, or herpes, is a sexually transmitted viral disease that can cycle between active disease and remission. There is no cure for the HSV, and the virus remains in the body for life, with recurrent outbreaks possible. This video presents the facts about herpes including how it's contracted, safe sex strategies to avoid infection, and medical advice on treatment. (13 minutes) © 2010

$129.95 53718 • DVD

Clearing Up Rosacea

This program clears up misconceptions about rosacea and explains the many treatments available for its management. (25 minutes) © 2012
$129.95 53726 • DVD

Photodynamic Therapy: Powerful Anti-Cancer Light Treatment

In this program, experts and cancer patients discuss photodynamic therapy—how it works, who it helps, and some of its possible side effects. The video also goes into the OR to show this innovative modality in action. (24 minutes) © 2012
$129.95 53727 • DVD

Preventing Preterm Birth

In this program, women who have delivered babies at less than 37 weeks gestational age and the doctors who treated them discuss ways to help reduce the risk of preterm birth. (24 minutes) © 2011
$129.95 53721 • DVD

New Hope for People with Hepatitis C

In this program, scientists as well as people with hepatitis C discuss the diagnosis, and viewers learn why there is new hope for hep C patients. (24 minutes) © 2011
$129.95 53722 • DVD

Catching a Killer: Preventing Meningococcal Disease

This program gives an overview of meningococcal disease and the vaccines that are available to prevent it. (24 minutes) © 2011
$129.95 53723 • DVD

The Multiple Sclerosis Revolution

This program explains how new findings about MS are leading to the development of innovative treatments and the promise of a better life for patients.

(24 minutes) © 2012
$129.95 53724 • DVD

MS Wars: Hope, Science, and the Internet

This program examines the science, controversy, and digital drama surrounding liberation therapy, an MS treatment developed by Paolo Zamboni in 2008. (50 minutes) © 2011
$169.95 52229 • DVD

Closed Captioned † Available only in the U.S.

Breaking the Wall of Child Mortality: How Immunization and Malaria Control Are Saving Senegal's New Generations

According to The Economist, child mortality in Senegal dropped 40 percent from 2005 to 2010—one of the fastest global reductions ever witnessed. Senegal's health minister Awa Marie Coll-Seck here attributes such achievements to immunization and malaria control—which if financed can continue to save lives in every endemic country. (15 minutes) © 2012
$129.95 53583 • DVD

Breaking the Wall of Brain Degeneration: How Population Studies Can Help Prevent Neurodegenerative Diseases

Monique Breteler—of DZNE in Bonn, the University of Bonn, and Harvard School of Public Health—has led international population studies in neurodegenerative diseases for over 20 years. Here she describes new health research aimed at optimizing brain function and quality of life throughout the entire life span. (16 minutes) © 2012
$129.95 53571 • DVD

History—United States History

For Love of Liberty: The Story of America's Black Patriots (University Edition)

If prevalent accounts of American history are to be believed, the face of the U.S. armed services has always been white. For Love of Liberty: The Story of America's Black Patriots finally sets the record straight. Bonus material and a facilitator's guide also included. (172 minutes + bonus material) © 2010

$299.00 54912 • DVD

The Homefront

This documentary uses vintage media clips, popular music, and the moving recollections of a cross-section of men and women to tell the larger story of World War II's impact on American life. (87 minutes) © 1985 ‡
$169.95 55493 • DVD

World History

Moyers & Company: Shores of Knowledge

In this edition of Moyers & Company, Bill speaks with historian Joyce Appleby about curiosity and how it has shaped our modern world. Broadcast date: October 11, 2013. (33 minutes) © 2013

$99.95 55674 • DVD

China's Nuclear Bomb

Set against the backdrop of the developing Cold War, this powerful documentary uses personal interviews and extraordinary archival footage in its account of the making of China's first atomic bomb. Portions with English subtitles. (52 minutes) © 2010

$169.95 52864 • DVD

THE OTTOMANS EUROPE'S MUSLIM EMPERORS

This three-part series examines political, social, and religious aspects of the Ottoman Empire's spread, revealing the antecedents of many important issues confronting the Muslim world today. A BBC Production. (50–60 minutes each) © 2013

Purchase the 3-part series today!

Series List Price: $509.85

55741 • DVD

A Time to Fight: HIJOS Speaks Out for the Disappeared of Argentinat

This program focuses on Lucia Garcia, a member of HIJOS, as it chronicles her 15-year-long struggle for justice on behalf of Argentina's disappeared. Spanish with English subtitles. (47 minutes) © 2012

$169.95 52414 • DVD

Voyage of the Dragon King

This film explores a unique chapter in the China's history through the adventures of Admiral Zheng He: Hui-Chinese court eunuch, mariner, explorer, diplomat, and fleet admiral, who commanded expeditionary voyages to Southeast Asia, South Asia, the Middle East, and East Africa from 1405 to 1433. (48 minutes) © 2003

$169.95 55054 • DVD

THE POWER GAME

CHIANG KAI-SHEK AND HIS FAMILIES

This three-part series analyzes the complex interrelationship between Chiang Kai-shek and the members of the Soong, Kung, and Chiang families.

(48–55 minutes each) © 2009

Purchase the 3-part series today!

Series List Price: $509.85

53286 • DVD

The Troubles in Northern Ireland

Offering a political, historical, and religious framework focused on the latter part of the 20th century, this program recounts the heartbreaking narrative of Northern Ireland's Troubles. Some language may be offensive. Viewable/printable educational materials are available online. (30 minutes) © 2012  ‡

$129.95 52784 • DVD

The Bosnian Identity

Young men who were children during the Bosnian War share difficult memories in this program, while members of the International Commission on Missing Persons discuss the challenges of their work. Some language may be offensive. Portions with English subtitles. (52 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 52779 • DVD

Music & Dance

A Zest for Life: Afro-Peruvian Rhythms, a Source of Latin Jazz

Using performance, historical photographs, and interviews, this program acquaints viewers with Afro-Peruvian music and dance. Portions with English subtitles. (57 minutes) © 2013

Recommended by

Educational Media Reviews Online.

$169.95 53316 • DVD

Discover Vivaldi's Four Seasons: An Interactive Music Experience

Before a live audience, conductor George Marriner Maull and the Discovery Orchestra explore the Four Seasons concerti and the lyrical compositions Vivaldi wrote for them. Viewable/printable listening and study guides are available online. (110 minutes)

© 2012

$169.95 53281 • DVD

Follow Me Down: Portraits of Louisiana Prison Musicians

This documentary from ethnomusi-

cologist Ben Harbert visits three Louisiana prisons to explore the role of music in the lives of incarcerated men and women. (96 minutes) © 2012

"It brings us up to date on the music of the people who are imprisoned in this country. We can no longer imagine it to be the work songs of 70 years ago...it's a really groundbreaking film....a very important film."

—Anthony Seeger, Director Emeritus,
Smithsonian Folkways Recordings

$169.95 53550 • DVD

Philosophy & Religion

Unoccupied Zone: The Impossible Life of Simone Weil

This biography from avant-garde filmmaker Cathy Lee Crane provides a multilayered representation of the life and ideas of philosopher, political activist, and mystic Simone Weil. Portions with English subtitles. (44 minutes) © 2006

$169.95 53548 • DVD

 Closed Captioned ‡ Available only in the U.S.

Twist of Faith

In Twist of Faith, we follow award-winning documentary filmmaker Martin Himel on one of the most ambitious projects of his career—a global journey to discover how religions and spiritual traditions influence societies and individuals around the world. This 13-part series offers fascinating glimpses into worlds both known and unknown. (22 minutes each) © 2009 CC ‡

Purchase the 13-part series today!
Series List Price: $2,209.35
52232 • DVD

Physical Science

Breaking the Wall of Traditional Electronics: How Embracing Disorder in Nanotechnology May Lead to Quantum Machines

Scientists today are reinventing computing—through efforts to engineer “quantum machines.” David Awschalom, an award-winning physicist at the University of California, is working with his team to make quantum machines a reality. Here he discusses his latest work, including some of the potential uses and challenges of these technologies. (16 minutes) © 2012 CC
$129.95 53570 • DVD

Breaking the Wall to Control Fusion Power: How Tokamak Research Is Paving the Way for Successful Fusion Energy Reactors

With the goal of using fusion power to generate energy, tokamak research focuses on creating and controlling high-temperature plasma as it exists in stars. Fusion scientist Rachael McDermott, of the ASDEX Upgrade team at the Max-Planck-Institut für Plasmaphysik, here presents the most recent advances toward developing the ultimate clean-energy source. (16 minutes) © 2012 CC
$129.95 53578 • DVD

Political Science

Moyers & Company: Distracted from Democracy

Why is there so little outcry about the ever-increasing divide between the very wealthy and everyone else? This edition of Moyers & Company points to a number of forces keeping affected citizens in the dark. Broadcast date: July 12, 2013. (29 minutes) © 2013 CC
$99.95 55118 • DVD

Moyers & Company: America's Political Breakdown

In this edition of Moyers & Company, Martin Wolf analyzes the recent debt-ceiling crisis, which he describes as the legislative equivalent of a nuclear bomb that America has aimed at itself. Broadcast date: October 18, 2013. (26 minutes) © 2013 CC
$99.95 55928 • DVD

Moyers & Company: Progressives Pick Up the Pieces

In this edition of Moyers & Company, Bill speaks with Peter Dreier, who sees the political crisis surrounding the recent government shutdown as filled with possibility for progressives in America. Broadcast date: October 25, 2013. (37 minutes) © 2013 CC
$99.95 56099 • DVD

Moyers & Company: United States of ALEC—A Follow-Up

This edition of Moyers & Company follows up on the September 28, 2012, broadcast about the most influential corporate-funded political force most of us have never heard of: ALEC. Broadcast date: June 21, 2013. (57 minutes) © 2013 CC
$169.95 55002 • DVD

Moyers & Company: The Long Assault on Voting Rights

In this edition of Moyers & Company, acclaimed historian Gary May joins Bill to put the recent Supreme Court decision gutting the Voting Rights Act into historical perspective. Broadcast date: July 12, 2013. (32 minutes) © 2013 CC
$99.95 55119 • DVD

Breaking the Wall of the Polling Booth: How Electoral Psychology Enlightens Democratic Citizenship

What do citizens think about in the polling booth? With his current project funded by the European Research Council, Michael Bruter of the London School of Economics explores how voters think in 15 countries, toward understanding more about the role of personality and emotions in the vote. (14 minutes) © 2012 CC
$129.95 53573 • DVD

Moyers & Company: Fighting for Farmworkers

In this edition of Moyers & Company, FLOC founder Baldemar Velásquez joins Bill to talk about the ongoing David versus Goliath struggles to ensure fairness for American farmworkers. Broadcast date: July 19, 2013. (43 minutes) © 2013 CC
$99.95 55218 • DVD

Moyers & Company: A New Case for Gun Control

This edition of Moyers & Company explains how a lethal combination of self-defense laws and concealed carry laws dilutes our legal protections against gun violence. Broadcast date: July 19, 2013. (18 minutes) © 2013 CC
$99.95 55219 • DVD

Moyers & Company: Citizens United—The Sequel

This edition of Moyers & Company warns that McCutcheon v. Federal Election Commission has the potential to be even more damaging to our democracy than Citizens United. Broadcast date: October 11, 2013. (28 minutes) © 2013 CC
$99.95 55673 • DVD

Moyers & Company: What Are We Doing in Syria?

In this edition of Moyers & Company, Phil Donahue sits in for Bill to speak with Deborah Amos and Andrew Bacevich about the possible repercussions of a new round of actions in the Middle East. Broadcast date: September 6, 2013. (57 minutes) © 2013 CC
$169.95 55438 • DVD

CC Closed Captioned ‡ Available only in the U.S.

Moyers & Company: America's Drone Wars

This edition of Moyers & Company previews Robert Greenwald's new documentary, Unmanned: America's Drone Wars. Broadcast date: November 1, 2013. (16 minutes) © 2013

$99.95 56126 • DVD

Permission to Engage: The Anguish of Civilian Casualties

On July 12, 2007, a U.S. airstrike killed or wounded at least 17 Baghdad civilians. This film examines the tragic incident with interviews in the U.S. and Iraq. Contains mature subject matter and scenes of combat violence. Portions with English subtitles. (51 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 53069 • DVD

Moyers & Company: Why Wall Street May Be Getting Off Easy

What do the actions of JPMorgan Chase tell us about the corruption of American capitalism? In this edition of Moyers & Company, Bill poses that question to Gretchen Morgenson. Broadcast date: October 25, 2013. (26 minutes) © 2013

$99.95 56098 • DVD

The Fear That Has A Thousand Eyes: Security and Surveillance in the 21st Century

Focusing on measures deployed in London as it prepared for the 2012 Olympic Games, this program explores 21st-century security technology and how it has changed urban life. (52 minutes) © 2012

$169.95 52835 • DVD

Moyers & Company: Big Brother's Prying Eyes

This edition of Moyers & Company examines the implications of governmental spying on phone calls and Internet activity and Edward Snowden's role in leaking information about it. Broadcast date: June 14, 2013. (57 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 54423 • DVD

Moyers & Company: The Collision of Sports and Politics

In this edition of Moyers & Company, Dave Zirin, sports correspondent for The Nation, joins Bill to discuss the intersection of sports, politics, and greed. Broadcast date: September 13, 2013. (57 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 55495 • DVD

Moyers & Company: Why Banks Are Still Too Big to Fail

In this edition of Moyers & Company, Gretchen Morgenson says that five years after the country's economic near-collapse, banks are still too big to fail, too big to manage, and too big to trust. Broadcast date: May 24, 2013. (22 minutes) © 2013

$99.95 53741 • DVD

Moyers & Company: John Lewis Marches On

In this edition of Moyers & Company, John Lewis and Bill Moyers meet to share experiences and revelations related to the momentous March on Washington, which they both attended 50 years ago. Broadcast date: July 26, 2013. (57 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 55233 • DVD

Psychology

Inside Out: Portraits of Children— A Film by Joanna Lipper

In this documentary about imagination and creativity in childhood, children between the ages of 5 and 12 tell their life stories with humor, sadness, and honesty, presenting compelling portraits of young identities in the process of development. (48 minutes) © 1997

Winner, Best Original Documentary,
Hollywood Discovery Award

Winner, Prix Jeune Public, Marseilles
International Festival of Documentary Films

$169.95 55231 • DVD

Breaking the Wall of Sensory Overload: How Primate Neuroscience Reveals the Mechanisms of Our Perception

Stefan Treue, professor of cognitive neuroscience and biological psychology at the German Primate Center and University of Göttingen, here details how he is successfully exploring the central influence of attention on our perception and contributing to an overturning of old ideas about information processing in our nervous system. (16 minutes) © 2012

$129.95 53584 • DVD

Attachment Theory

This comprehensive program explores models of attachment behavior, including research by Bowlby, Maccoby, Lorenz, Harlow, and Ainsworth. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (26 minutes) © 2013 ‡

$129.95 53754 • DVD

Happy (Educator's Edition)

This documentary combines powerful stories and remarkable case studies with serious brain science to illustrate how to actively pursue a happier life. Viewable/printable educational resources are available online.

Portions with English subtitles.

(74 minutes) © 2012

"Top-notch production that seamlessly combines scientific data and research with engaging narrative storytelling. Highly recommended for all audiences."

—Educational Media Reviews

$169.95 53499 • DVD

The Healing Years: Surviving Incest and Child Sexual Abuse

This powerful documentary—an acclaimed film in the field of child sexual abuse prevention—tells the stories of three courageous incest survivors: Marilyn Van Derbur, Janice Mirikitani, and Barbara Hamilton. (52 minutes) © 2000

"This documentary does the most difficult, almost impossible feat: it admits the sick and cruel past. In doing so, it becomes therapy for a healthy future. This is an exhibition of abundant courage and great heart.

Thank you."—Maya Angelou

$169.95 53497 • DVD

Boys and Men Healing from Child Sexual Abuse

This wise and compassionate documentary shares the stories of three courageous non-offending men whose determination to deal with the sexual abuse they experienced as children has assisted them in reclaiming their lives. (58 minutes) © 2011

"Use this film to change laws."

—Senator Joseph Vitale, New Jersey Senate

$169.95 53498 • DVD

Closed Captioned ‡ Available only in the U.S.

Psychoanalytic Approaches to the Prevention of Violence: The UN in Action

This program features notable segments of the 2006 International Psychoanalytical Association-UN Conference, providing an inside view of efforts to achieve world peace without the use of force. (47 minutes) © 2007

$169.95 52177 • DVD

Aggression: Is Violence Learned?

This program uses real-life criminal cases to explore theories of extreme aggression, including the theory that children become violent after watching violent movies. A viewable/printable worksheet is available online. (23 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$129.95 53755 • DVD

Mapping Murder Investigative Psychology Meets Geographical Profiling

This six-part series spotlights renowned investigative psychologist David Canter as he combines psychology and technology with geography to analyze some of the most notorious crimes on record in the U.K. and abroad. (23 minutes each) © 2002

Purchase the 6-part series today!

Series List Price: $899.70

53509 • DVD

False Memories: Skepticism, Susceptibility, and the Impact on Psychotherapy

This film shows how Dr. Elizabeth Loftus challenged the 1990s trend of memory “recovery” even as she enriched the study of memory in contemporary psychology. Original production title: False Memory or Elizabeth Loftus on False Memory. (23 minutes) © 2013

$129.95 53552 • DVD

Sociology

Unbreakable: One Girl Changing the World—The Story of Malala

This ABC News interview covers many topics, from Malala Yousafzai’s family and childhood to her significance in the struggle for women’s rights. Her father and the doctors who saved her life are also featured. (39 minutes) © 2013

$149.95 56121 • DVD

Blue Ghosts: Women’s Rights in Afghanistan

In this program Suraya Pakzad, director of Afghan Voice of Women, discusses her country’s ongoing struggle for women’s rights. Portions with English subtitles. (55 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 53631 • DVD

Softening: Loving a Child with Special Needs

The rewards and challenges of caring for a child born with extensive brain damage are evident in Softening, a lyrical cinematic diary created to show others who may feel uncomfortable about disability the joy that such a child has brought to his family’s life. (39 minutes) © 2012

DOC NYC festival, Grand Jury Prize Winner

“An experience unlike any other...One of the truest portraits of family I have ever seen.”

—Toronto Film Scene

$169.95 55451 • DVD

Two Dads, Two Moms: Gay Couples and Their Families

Profiling families in the U.S., France, and Spain, this program focuses on the children of gay couples and how their experiences resemble or differ from more conventional upbringings. (52 minutes) © 2013  ‡

$169.95 53324 • DVD

Conceiving Family: Stories of Gay and Lesbian Adoption

Following the filmmaker and her partner as they adopt twins, this program highlights the legal, social, and personal difficulties that accompany the rewards of parenthood when gays and lesbians start families through adoption. Produced in Canada. (50 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 53303 • DVD

One Fine Day: Individual Acts of Courage and Defiance

From China to Chile, from the U.S. to Iraq, from Germany to Myanmar, this film profiles six people who helped to overcome injustice through small nonviolent actions.

Portions with English subtitles. (58 minutes) © 2012

$169.95 53070 • DVD

INTERCULTURAL CONNECTIONS IN PSYCHOLOGY ALTRUISM, DIMENSIONS OF CULTURE, AND HAPPINESS

This three-part series features commentary on well-being, education, and more from American and African students, contextualized by academic views on cross-cultural and positive psychology. A viewable/printable instructor’s guide is available online. (19–39 minutes each) © 2013

Purchase the 3-part series today!

Series List Price: $389.85

53627 • DVD

Philanthropy, Inc.: The Bottom Line on Corporate Charity

This program explores “strategic philanthropy” and “cause marketing” by examining the partnerships of Walmart, General Mills, and Coca-Cola with Katrina victims, the Susan G. Koman Foundation, and the World Wildlife Fund. (45 minutes) © 2012  ‡

$169.95 53327 • DVD

Erasing Hate

This program follows ex-white supremacist Bryon Widner through painful tattoo removal treatments as his journey from extremist skinhead to soul-searching family man is revealed. Contains harsh and inflammatory language. (92 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 52315 • DVD

Moyers & Company: Being Alone Together

In this edition of Moyers & Company, Bill speaks with Sherry Turkle, who says that the Internet and social media have changed not only what we do but also who we are. Broadcast date: October 18, 2013. (35 minutes) © 2013

$99.95 55929 • DVD

 Closed Captioned ‡ Available only in the U.S.

Moyers & Company: America's Gilded Capital

In this edition of Moyers & Company, Mark Leibovich joins Bill to reveal what he has learned about Washington, D.C., where money rules and status is determined by who you know and what they can do for you. Broadcast date: August 23, 2013. (57 minutes) © 2013

$169.95 55430 • DVD

Why Poverty?

This Peabody Award-winning eight-part series aims to raise awareness of poverty worldwide while exploring its causes and offering some possible solutions. Includes bonus material. A viewable/printable instructor's guide is available online.

Portions with English subtitles.
(58–65 minutes each) © 2012

Purchase the 8-part series today!
Series List Price: $1,359.60
55235 • DVD

Pop Goes Islam

In this program the founder of 4shbab—"Islam's MTV"—and the veiled fashion model who convinced him to include women on the show discuss the challenges of being at the vanguard of cultural change within their religion. Portions with English subtitles. (48 minutes) © 2010

$169.95 53608 • DVD

Breaking the Silence: Women's Reproductive Rights in Central and Eastern Europe

In this program, women from Poland, Lithuania, Slovakia, Moldova, Georgia, and the Ukraine discuss the ways in which lack of reproductive rights has affected them. Portions with English subtitles. (58 minutes) © 2007

$169.95 54414 • DVD

Inside the New KKK

Granted rare access to the Mississippi White Nights of the KKK, this ABC News program reports on the resurgence of the Ku Klux Klan. Some content may be objectionable. Broadcast date: October 26, 2012. (13 minutes) © 2012

$99.95 52811 • DVD

Mama Illegal: Undocumented in Western Europe

Putting their trust and safety in the hands of illicit traffickers, three women from a bleak Moldovan village make their way to Austria and Italy, where they spend seven years as cleaners or caregivers. Portions with English subtitles. (94 minutes) © 2011

$169.95 52819 • DVD

Globesity: Fat's New Frontier

This program travels to Mexico, Brazil, India, and China to explore the shocking explosion of obesity in developing countries and to examine its link to increasing wealth and changing diets. (60 minutes) © 2012

$169.95 53076 • DVD

Technical Education

Power Steering Systems: Service and Diagnosis

This program explains how to diagnose, service, and install power steering systems. Correlates to ASE and NATEF standards. Viewable/printable instructor's guide available online. A Shopware Production. (17 minutes) © 2014

$99.95 54901 • DVD

RESIDENTIAL ENERGY EFFICIENCY PROJECTS

This five-part series gives the how-tos for a variety of projects aimed at increasing energy efficiency while reducing utility bills. Viewable/printable instructor's guide available online.

A Shopware/NAHBPU Production.
(12–20 minutes each) © 2014

Purchase the 5-part series today!
Series List Price: $499.75
53198 • DVD

Blueprint Fundamentals: Interpreting Symbols and Specs

From a blueprint's basic elements to the distinct features of construction, electrical, manufacturing, and machining blueprints, this program gives viewers a detailed primer on types of blueprints and how they are read. A Shopware/MotionMasters Coproduction. (33 minutes) © 2014

$129.95 53614 • DVD

Electrical Circuits

This video explores voltage, current, resistance, and series and parallel circuits. It also demonstrates real-world applications of the principles of electricity. Viewers are shown how to use a multimeter. Viewable/printable educational resources are available online. (22 minutes) © 2013

$129.95 53454 • DVD

One Flash and You're Ash! Working Safely with Electricity

A wise electrician will always be slightly afraid of electricity! This video shows how to avoid electric shock but also shows how to treat it in emergency situations. Produced in Australia. Viewable/printable educational resources are available online. (15 minutes) © 2013

$129.95 53455 • DVD

Essential Automotive Tasks: Volumes 1-3

Each program in this three-part series presents a collection of step-by-step tutorials that show how to perform some of the most common tasks an automotive professional will experience. Led by a veteran, ASE-certified instructor, segments also take some time to teach the theory behind the systems being repaired. Correlates to ASE and NATEF standards. A Shopware Production. 3-part series, 23–27 minutes each.

Purchase the 3-part series today!
Series List Price: $389.85
56103 • DVD

Closed Captioned † Available only in the U.S.