

EDUCATION

Streaming Video Collection

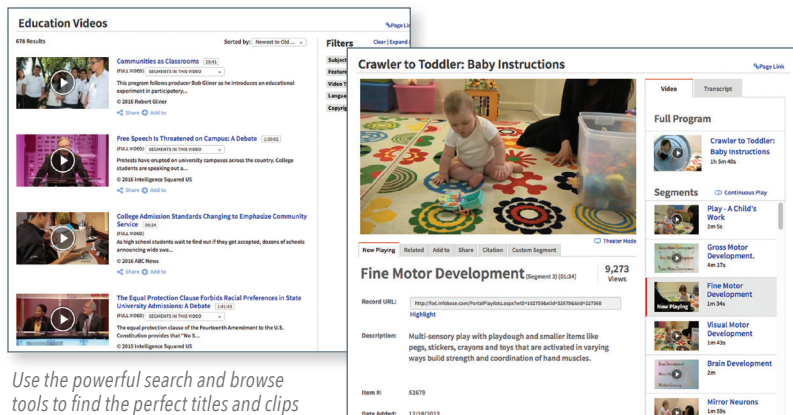

Includes:

- Curriculum and Instruction
- Foundations
- Psychology & Education
- Special Education

8,525+ video clips, 675+ full-length videos—and growing!

This collection addresses basics such as effective teaching methods and classroom management as well as best practices for use of technology, application of standards, overcoming the challenges of special needs students, understanding legal and ethical issues, and more. Ideal for aspiring educators who want to learn not only how to teach a curriculum, but also how to help mold young people into healthy, confident, prepared citizens.

- Conveniently segmented for lecture and in-class use
- Unlimited access from any location—on campus or off
- More than 440 hours of educational videos, lectures, and documentaries from top producers
- Create Your Own Video Intro feature
- “Featured This Month” Calendar
- Custom Content Upload Option
- Captions, interactive transcripts, citations, Google Translate, and more
- New videos added at no additional cost
- Easily embed videos into Canvas, Blackboard, Moodle, or other CMS
- Tablet, mobile, PC & Mac friendly
- Create and share personalized playlists using segments from multiple videos
- Keyword tags for all content, linking to related material

Use the powerful search and browse tools to find the perfect titles and clips for lectures and assignments.

Once you find the clips you need, use the Add to Playlist tool or the embed code to provide instant access for students through your online course management system.

EDUCATION STREAMING VIDEO COLLECTION

All titles are segmented into short, pedagogical clips, ideal for intermittent use during classroom lectures. For classwork viewing, students can choose to watch an entire film without interruption. Titles within the collection are sorted across 14 distinct, browsable subject categories (e.g., Technology in Education, Effective Teaching, Special Education, Psychology & Education), enabling refined searches for available titles in specific topic areas.

Here's a sampling of the collection highlights:

EXCLUSIVE

School: The Story of American Public Education

A four-hour series narrated by Academy Award-winning actress Meryl Streep that weaves archival footage, rare interviews, and on-site coverage into an unprecedented portrait of public education in America.

How Difficult Can This Be? The F.A.T. City Workshop—Understanding Learning Disabilities

The classic workshop led by learning disabilities expert Richard D. Lavoie, vividly illustrating how LD students face F.A.T.: frustration, anxiety, and tension.

EXCLUSIVE

Integrating ESL Students into the Classroom

A priceless resource for teachers of any subject that presents concrete information and advice that can be used to better teach—and reach—English-language learners.

EXCLUSIVE

Teaching Diverse Learners

Winner of the Broadcast Education Association Award of Excellence, a two-part series demonstrating how experienced educators have mastered the challenges that come with teaching high-needs students.

Multiple titles on Jean Piaget and his theories of cognitive development in children.

EXCLUSIVE

Internet Research and Information Literacy: Effective Strategies and Cautionary Tales

A three-part media literacy series on the best practices for applying academic standards and scholarly research methods to the rapidly evolving online world—with episodes on basic and advanced search, recognizing propaganda and bias, and plagiarism in the era of Wikipedia.

Special Needs Students in Regular Classrooms? Sean's Story

The classic ABC News production about an eight-year-old boy with Down syndrome who was part of a battle over “inclusion”—placing mentally or physically challenged students in regular classrooms.

Why We Drop Out: A Video Bridge Dialogue between Youth, Teachers, and Administrators

Outlines a unique process that allows participants on each level of the educational ladder to contribute to a personal and structural understanding of the many factors that derail students from graduating.

EXCLUSIVE

Indian School: Stories of Survival

This film combines archival materials with present-day interviews to document the inhumane system of “Indian Schools” that aimed to erase Native American culture and “civilize” the continent’s indigenous people.

EXCLUSIVE & AWARD WINNER

Class Act: Jay W. Jensen and the Future of Arts Education in America—Educator's Edition

An award-winning documentary from the executive producers of Super Size Me that examines the deplorable atrophy of arts education in America by contrasting the crisis with the story of one very dedicated, inspiring high school drama teacher: Jay W. Jensen. Celebrity alumni and arts education thought leaders weigh in.

EXCLUSIVE

A Global Roll Call: The Need for Education Worldwide

A multiple-award-winning three-part series from Wide Angle that examines gaps in educational opportunities that trap children in poverty, deny girls the right to learn, and prevent developing countries from advancing.